

Great Mother White Whale Watakiti
Meditation for Humanity to assist the Earth

Channel by Laurie Reyon

Beloved ones, I am the Great Mother White Whale. I am Watakiti, and I come to you from the Cosmos. In truth, you know Me as one of your dearest friends, a Mother energy that has helped birth all that you conceive of. I come to assist my beautiful Gaia, beautiful Mother Earth, and all of you as you have called Me forth on this day. I would ask that you would now open your hearts to receive that which I am giving you. I am bringing my Light Body to your home now, and I am descending down now, around your home with your permission. If you're willing, you will now come into the womb of my Being and merge your energy and consciousness with mine. I offer my assistance in this journey of consciousness and expansion that you are seeking.

Sense and feel your energy merging now through my left EYE. Feel the energy of my Light Body come down around you and your home now. And now breathe deeply and feel the energy shift. Allow your breathing to slow and your heartbeat to join with mine. Together now we are joining in Unity.

I tell each of you now, that if you call upon the Whale Kingdom, the great Cetacean Nations, always the Great Whale will come to you that can access your Akashic Record, which is the recorded journey of your Soul over every lifetime. On this day, our process is different. Today, we are joining together inside one body, one form, and that is within the Mother White Whale. I Am Watakiti.

If you agree now to take this journey, silently give your permission. As we begin to merge our Light Fields together, it is a joyous experience to come together in this way. Together, joined in love, we begin to sink into the womb of Mother Earth. I take you gently now to the core of Mother Gaia, to the Crystal Cave of Creation, where your crystal is stored, and where your personal records reside. Your personal Soul crystal is placed in the earth on the day that you were born in this form. We go now, where we can only go in the etheric, to the Crystal Cave of Creation. This place within the Earth is a most treasured and special place. In this place, your crystal connects you to all that we do together and to the Grid systems. This Cave is the multi-dimensional system that captures the human experience for Gaia.

The Whales and Dolphins of planet Earth are the living components of the magnetic Grids of Earth, holding a quantum energy signature. This is the energy of communication and record keeping. The Cetaceans contain the “history of the earth” and they are sacred for that reason.

We ask now that you give your permission for this merger and journey as we are the navigators. First we must connect to the Crystal that holds your records. As you give permission now for the changes you are seeking, we move together into the time lines of pure potentiality. We must do so now with the permission of Mother (Earth) Herself, you see, as we seek to assist Her in this time of transition and change.

Feel yourself now relax into this experience. There is nothing to “know,” there is nothing to “do,” there is only in this place “to be;” to be fully present with Me. To be here together.

And now, as a unified field of consciousness, within the Ancient of the Ancients, we ask Gaia Herself for permission to merge with your Body Elemental which is grounded into the Cave of Creation, into the origin of creation and to the Human Form that you are. We ask to use that Body Elemental now, to make changes that are for the greater good.

Do not just trust the words of my partner, trust your heart when she says “yes, please.” Let us join together now for the greater good of expansion, for the restoration of the energy you know as the Flower of Life within the very core of this Planet. Understand as you know, maybe in a different way than you ever have before, this is a living, breathing Being that has come to this solar system. She is a borrowed bridge of Light. She has come here to play this part for you, to be your Mother lifetime after lifetime after lifetime and whatever you decide to do, you understand, She must stay to endure. You do not have to stay; you are choosing to stay. There is a difference.

So feel the commitment this Being has to withstand all that Humanity would bring to Her, all that would happen during the Earth experience. Long before you came into form, remember the Whales came first.

So, as it was mentioned, we do have the experience you are seeking and nothing makes us happier than to connect with you in this way, to have you come to us and say, “We wish to remember, we wish to join with you, we know you can navigate these waters with us.” And through those huge physical bodies we have in the ocean, we can withstand that which will come together. But we need you to be powered up, we need you to light up your electromagnetic systems and activate your DNA in a most accelerated fashion now. It’s as if someone is asking now to rewire you and you are saying “yes.”

This can only come from your heart and from a place of your dear and great love for this Being you know as Mother Earth.

And now all of her Elementals, the Builders of Form, are here. Let's acknowledge Them, as They have created the form that you love so much through all of nature. It was the original intention, as you know, of this planet, for Them to do it all for you and that contract was ended through Humanity. We wish not to dwell here, but only to remind you that this is the time to mend the bridge with the Elementals, to apologize to Them, ask for Their forgiveness, reconnect now with Mother Earth's most precious ones who live within the earth, because They can greatly assist you now.

Take a moment to breathe with Them, connect with Them and ask them to come and sit with you; even to join us on this journey. Breathe in the essence of Air, Water, Fire and Earth; all the prana that is used to create every form that this Planet nourishes is held most precious to Her. When you feel ready, allow that experience to come into your body in a way that it will stay, it will leave with you when you leave this room, it will go with you. The colors will be brighter, the trees will be greener, the flowers will be more beautiful, the animals more precious, the Whales and Dolphins, your cousins from the stars. Embrace now the elemental part of you, your own Body Elemental; ask for it to expand. Envision yourself standing on the Flower of Life, moving freely, weaving your Light through it, as it is you. See yourself now within your own perfectly created Merkaba Light Body, your own Merkaba Light Ship, within that perfected form of the Flower of Life.

You are here, in this world; know it would not be complete without you. You are so loved and supported, you have no idea. It is unimaginable to you but I would ask that you would touch how loved and supported you are; the magnificence of the Angelics and the Celestial Beings now that wish to serve you and help you. They have waited and waited and waited for the brilliance of Light that would emerge from your consciousness when you awaken. For one hundred thousand years now, since the last Star Seed experiment, the 12 Worlds of Form have been waiting for these moments in time. All the eyes of the Universe are on the Earth, it is so dearly important that we love Her and protect Her now as we know we can. Together, joined in love, we can accomplish anything.

Now, as you can feel it, I'm rising up, you see, I'm coming up from the core of the Earth and you are within me and I am within you. We are rising up now. We're going up above the Earth, up above and we're connecting to the Grid and, as it was said previously, now you may fly freely into the magnetic grids of the Earth. Using the energy of your triangulation, of the Mother within you, and now the Father within you and the seed of your own Soul to triangulate and move out of linear time into the pure potentiality of the Ascension. Allow your energy to fly freely now in your own personal Merkaba ship. Into the Grid systems, into the magnetics, working with your team, with all of those Beings.

We welcome the Pleiadeans, we welcome the Arcturians, all of you are this. We welcome the Andromedans, and the Orion system and the Lyrians, the Sirians and the Alpha Centaurians.

We welcome the Elementals again on the journey. Now we begin to welcome the Earth Angels, the Galactic Elohim Archangels, the Cosmic Angels and the Company of Heaven. See all of them in their brilliance now, overlighting the whole surface of the Earth, and you are one of them. In your own personal signature of magnificence and light, you play a brilliant part here. All you have to do now is ask to intuitively know where to go and where to be, and now is the time to bring out the magnificent beautiful device you have been given from the Higher Realms and allow it to spin, allow it to go and to be exactly where it needs to go. Feel your whole self, connected to it, Align your heartbeat with this spin and know that it becomes now a part of your own activated living Merkaba system, feeling the Trinity within you, feeling the Celestial Realms and the Angels radiating Their Light upon us, Mother Earth and Her Elementals from below and the prana is flowing, the stardust is twinkling and we are brilliant lights upon the Earth.

Allow yourself to feel the expansion of what will happen when Mother Earth is allowed to naturally follow the Ascension Process that was always Hers to have, knowing that this is absolutely and completely possible with your help. And now, just a blanket of Love, a blazing of our own living light fields which is the Violet Flame, with the entourage of our Ascended Master Saint Germaine and all of those Beings let us blanket the earth and send out a wave of Violet Flame to all those that would play in something other than light, just offering them the opportunity to transmute any energies that would be something other than love. Because at the core of all Beings there is the spark of the Divine. We just offer them that opportunity in this healing and in this transmutation we offer light and love to all Beings in all places and at all times. Moving into all dimensions now through the timelines, into the worm holes to the far corners of our galaxy, we offer this gift of our joined presence and it is well received.

I would ask that you continue to work with me in the dream state, in the coming days in your meditations and to do now what is asked of you, to share this message with anyone and everyone that you can. In your world, I believe you say, "Let this go viral," that every person in every corner of the world would have the opportunity to know that Mother Earth is asking for help and they will have the opportunity to rise up and be a part of the change that we are initiating right here, right now.

We are grateful, we are humbled, we are honored by the brilliance of light each of you brings to this planet. We know you well, Star Seed Brothers and Sisters! We are the Great Whales and I am Watakiti.

Namaste.
